Re: Silent Auction Donations

Dear Members & Friends of the AAAOM-Student Organization:

We invite you to make a donation to the annual Silent Auction of the American Association of Acupuncture Oriental Medicine – Student Organization (AAAOM-SO). This year's fundraising event takes place during the AAAOM's 2010 Expo, April 8-11, 2010 at the Hyatt Regency Tamaya in Albuquerque, NM.

The AAAOM-SO is the student organization of the AAAOM, which is a 501(c) (6) non-profit professional corporation (Tax ID: 52-1633647), formed in 1981. Our mission is to promote integrity and excellence in the professional practice of acupuncture and Oriental medicine (AOM) as a distinct, primary care field of medicine. The Association assists states in enacting new practice acts or advancing the scope of practice in states where practice acts already exist. AAAOM provides patient referrals for acupuncturists nationwide, via phone, email, and the web site at www.aaaomonline.org.

A list of possible auction items to contribute is listed on the back of this letter. Proceeds from the AAAOM-SO Silent Auction support our legislative activities, student scholarships and the educational and outreach activities of acupuncture students. The winning bids will be announced at Sunday's luncheon, April 11th.

For information on contributing to the Silent Auction, please contact Irwin Tjong, the AAAOM-SO Silent Auction Coordinator at hitjong@gmail.com

We appreciate your generosity as your donation impacts the awareness, sustainability, and use of AOM in the United States.

Thank you for your contribution!

Sincerely,

Kimberley Benjamin
AAAOM-SO President
